Re: Bathroom Remodel

Dear Sir or Madam,

Tim Caulton of Caulton Contracting, Inc. remodeled a bathroom in our residence during the months of January and February, 1996. We were extremely pleased with the work that was performed by Caulton Contracting.

The project was completed within the time schedule that Tim originally estimated. The sub-contractors always showed up on time and performed quality work. Overall, the job was much better than we have encountered with previous remodel experiences. We are entirely satisfied both with the completed project and the construction process.

Very truly yours,

Alec T. B.
